

CLIO TL-GD - CLIO RECHARGEABLE TABLE LAMP

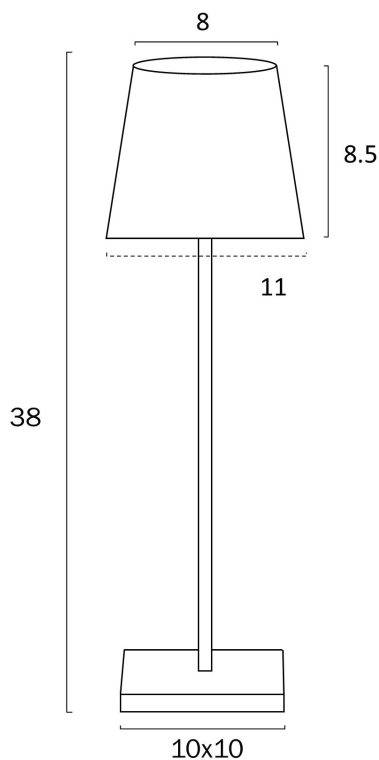

The Clio table lamp is a versatile lighting solution suitable for indoor and outdoor settings. It's perfect for personal use at home, offering portability and touch-based controls for adjusting brightness. In commercial applications, such as restaurants and cafes, it provides intimate table lighting with dimming options. The lamp's IP54 waterproof rating makes it resilient against dust and light water exposure. Additionally, a 10-bank charging station option ensures readiness for establishments requiring multiple lamps, making it an ideal choice for various settings.
